

THE CENTRALITY OF STORY

Your life is not a set of facts. Rather, it is a great drama unfolding. There is a plot filled with danger, hope, and ‘against all odds’ moments. Your story is filled with motives, allies, and enemies. What is the story that God is telling with your life? How does that story integrate into the Christian Cosmic Narrative? If story isn’t recovered, life remains a chaos. Our ministry efforts seek to invite people back into the heart of the matter by using narrative as a north star.
